

LAW AND POLICY RELATING TO SEX SELECTION

A LOOK AT THE PROBLEM OF SEX SELECTION, PRECONCEPTION, AND PRENATAL DIAGNOSTIC TECHNIQUES ACT, AND VARIOUS OTHER LAWS
AND POLICIES IMPACTING SEX SELECTION, AND A FIELD STUDY IN SELECTED DISTRICTS IN KARNATAKA

SARASU ESTHER THOMAS

PhD DISSERTATION

CERTIFICATE

Certified that the thesis entitled "Law and Policy Relating to Sex Selection" submitted to the National Law School of India University, Bangalore, by Ms. Sarasu Esther Thomas, for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy, is a bonafide research work carried out by her under my guidance.

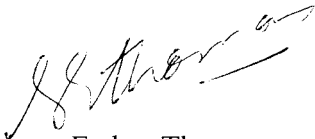

(Dr. V. Nagaraj)
Professor of Law
National Law School of India University
Bangalore

Date : January 7, 2008

DECLARATION

This is to certify that this work is an original research work done by me on “LAW AND POLICY RELATING TO SEX SELECTION” under the guidance and supervision of Prof V Nagaraj at the National Law School of India University. Further, I certify that this thesis has not been submitted for the award of any degree/diploma/fellowship or any similar title. I further certify that all references are duly acknowledged.

Sarasu Esther Thomas

National Law School of India University

Bangalore 560 072

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation was long in completing and I am thankful to all those who assisted me and stood by me in my long journey-

- Professor V Nagaraj, guide and mentor who went through my fourth draft and summary and helped me finalise the work in its present form.
- Dr Elizabeth V S and Dr Sitharamam Kakarala, guides at earlier stages who helped me with Chapterisation and Research Methodology respectively
- Professors from NALSAR, Amita Dhanda and Kalpana Kannabiran who made the time to meet me to discuss issues
- Sabu M George who inspired me to work on this area and invited me to Seminars and Conferences all over the country to gain insights and materials and who put me in touch with key people who could assist me
- Innumerable ethical doctors who were critical of their profession and guided me especially through complex medical terms, particularly my Viva Voce panelists
- Lawyers particularly Mr Sanjay Parikh who allowed me to access his casefiles and documents in the Cehat litigation, Anitha Shenoy who shared insights on the case, PNDT lawyers in Bangalore, public prosecutors in cases in Karnataka
- Librarians at the National Law School Bangalore, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, United Theological College and the Indian Law Institute
- Organizations such as Vimochana, Lawyers Collective, Majlis, Asmita and others where I learnt much about social realities
- District Health Officers in the Districts I visited in Karnataka, Population Officers in Bangalore and other districts who helped me with statistics
- The PNDT Cell, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, New Delhi for their interest in my work
- The National Law School which gave me time off to do my field research
- My family without whom I would have given up a long time ago